This climax in the affairs of Greece was brought about through the agency of the French Senator, M. Jonnart, who has held posts in several French caba day or two ago on a special mission as the representative of France, Great Britain and Russia. M. Jonnart had previously visited Salonica and other points, and he lost no time in getting into conference with the Greek Prem ier, Alexander Zaimis.

The demands of the power ing the abdication of King Constantine also specifically eliminated Crown Prince George as his successor, the Crown Prince being included among those Greeks in official life who were considered strongly pro-German.

Will Leave the Country

Both the former King and Prince George, it was announced to-day by Premier Zaimis, intend to leave the country immediately. It is reported that they will embark on a British warship and proceed to Switzerland by way of Italy.

It is presumed that Prince Alexander will take up his kingly duties with full protecting powers desire to be put into effect in the government of Greece durcess in the inevitable struggle against ing the present war. He is twentyfour years old and has been free from

Had Troops Ready

While he informed the Premier that troops had been placed at his disposal, he appealed to that official to use his influence toward a peaceful settlement. The troops, according to M. Jonnart's instructions, were not to land until the King had given his answer.

M. Jonnart called upon Premier Zaimis on Monday morning and demanded in the name of the protecting powers the abdication of King Constantine and the nomination of his successor to the exclusion of the Crown Prince.

M. Zaimis recognized the disinterestedness of the powers, whose sole object was to reconstitute the unity of Greece under the constitution, but he pointed out to M.
